FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KIDDER NAMED 2016 PINNACLE ADMINISTRATOR

WEST DES MOINES, IOWA – Kidder has been named to Nationwide’s list of 2016 Pinnacle Administrators. The honor is presented annually to firms ranking in the top three percent of the company’s administrative partners. This is the 15th year Kidder has been named to the list.

In noting the achievement, Keith Gredys, President & CEO of Kidder Benefits Consultants, said, “our relationship with Nationwide continues to be beneficial for many of our clients and enables us to advocate of their behalf. Thanks to our independent approach, we work with a number of professionals and partners, like Nationwide, to develop innovative, compliant retirement solutions tailored to the unique needs of plan sponsors and participants.”

Nationwide is one of America’s largest insurance and financial services companies and a top 10 provider of public-sector retirement plans and defined contribution plans. The company has also been recognized among America’s top record keepers by Plan Sponsor magazine.
